

The Parenting Center & Elementary School PTAs Present

Protecting Our Children Online:

Internet Safety, Cyber-bullying and Texting invisible, prevalent, instantaneous

We know the texting & social media horror stories; our kids are not immune.

FBI Special Agent Joshua Wilson, an expert in internet safety and child exploitation, will talk about keeping your child safe in the digital age. Special Agent Wilson will teach you what your kids already know. He will provide you with effective strategies to deal with the dangers of inappropriate texting, instagrams and other social media. You will learn how to talk to and protect your kids from the unseen threats of the digital world.
