GREAT ACTORS. GREAT WRITERS. GREAT STORIES.

READINGS

Monday, March 30, 7:30-9pm

Columbia High School Auditorium | 17 Parker Avenue, Maplewood, NJ

ZACH GRENIER plays the ethically challenged David Lee on “The Good Wife.” Tony-nominated for “33 Variations” opposite Jane Fonda, Zach has created roles in many of NY’s most provocative new plays.

EMILY ZACHARIAS directs Celebrity Readings. Working as an actor in NY and in regional theater, she also develops new plays with The Workshop Theater in NYC.

JOHN AMOS is a veteran of classic TV shows from the popular “Good Times” to the critically praised “Roots.” Onstage, he is known for his performances in plays by August Wilson, Athol Fugard and Shakespeare.

Inspired by Isaiah Sheffer’s Selected Shorts at Symphony Space, Celebrity Readings is an evening of storytelling; great short stories are performed by celebrated actors.
