

ORGANIZATIONS THAT WILL PICKUP:

Family Assistance Resource Center

973 573 2305 <http://www.farcnjsupport.com/>

--hands on organization that directly provides goods to victims of fire, domestic violence and others forced from their homes.

--accepts almost anything: from furniture and appliances, to clothing and toys.

Pickup ability may vary, depending on their truck availability, current crises and warehouse space.

Organizations that directly sell picked-up merchandise locally to fund programs:

Salvation Army

--donated items are sold directly at Family Stores; proceeds are fund Adult Rehabilitation Centers.

--pickup scheduling: <https://satruck.org/Donate/choose> or 1-800-SA-TRUCK (1-800-728-7825)

--accepts clothing, books, household items, small furniture

donation valuation guide (for tax purposes):

<https://satruck.org/Home/DonationValueGuide>

Organizations that receive a (small) profit from picked up merchandise locally to fund programs:

Vietnam Vets

--pickup scheduling scheduleapickup.com or 800-775-8387

--dedicated to promote and support issues important to Vietnam vets

--accepts clothing, shoes, bedding, housewares, glass, toys, bikes, small furniture, small appliances.

Big Brothers Big Sisters

--pickup scheduling donatebbbs.org (973)970-9231

--provide mentors for children

--accepts stuffed animals, small appliances, beddings, books, bikes, toys, clothing, electronics, household, kitchen, miscellaneous, sporting goods

Lupus Foundation of America

--pickup scheduling: <http://www.lupuspickup.org/home/redirector>

--mission to improve the quality of life for all people affected by lupus

--accepts used clothing, household goods. see list of accepted items

Drop off donations

Kathleen's Closet, 15-19 Evans Terminal Road, Hillside, NJ 908 242 3955

- thrift store of Community Food Bank of NJ.
- proceeds support CFBNJ, which fights hunger and poverty in New Jersey. The IFPO is a partner agency of CFBNJ, which has a 4* rating on Charity Navigator.;
- drop off clothing box available. Also accepts furniture, books, household stuff and clothes between 9-5.

Goodwill Industries

- attended donation center (near Bed Bath) 649 Morris Turnpike, Springfield (973) 376-6541
- store and donation center: 126 Route 22 West, Springfield (973) 912-0156
- Goodwill is a non-profit provider of job training and career services for individuals with disabilities and disadvantages. Donated items are sold directly in Goodwill resale stores.
- accepts clothing, household items, electronics, bikes, medical equipment

Bridges 120 Morris Avenue Summit, NJ 07901 Oakes Center (entrance on Russell Place)

- weekly outreach to homeless in New York City, Newark, Irvington, and Summit, NJ
- accepts seasonal clothing Tuesdays, 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m, Fridays, 8:30 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Moms Helping Moms Foundation 2816 Morris Ave, #8 Union, NJ

- helps families facing financial distress meet their babies' basic needs
- drop off baby and toddler clothes, shoes, nursing and bath supplies, maternity wear, toys, strollers, swings, pack n' plays. No toys.

Thrift stores that accept donations and then resell goods:

Sage Resale Shop, 31 Chatham Rd, Summit, NJ 07901, 908.273.5564

- provides community-based care for older adults, including Meals on Wheels
- accepts household items, small appliances, furniture, bric-a-brac, books, toys and clothing

Unique Thrift Store 2485 US-22, Union, NJ 07083 (908) 688-6822

- — for profit business, small percentage of sales benefits Lupus Foundation