

Library of Congress

Sunday
June 9, 2019
 1:00 – 5:00 p.m.

JUNETEENTH: A Celebration of Freedom

An African American holiday marking the end of slavery in the United States

at Durand-Hedden,
 523 Ridgewood Rd, Maplewood

Activities for all ages, children through seniors

- > Learn about Juneteenth and the history of enslaved people in NJ
- > Find out winners of the student essay contest
- > Meet the 6th Regiment US Colored Troops (Civil War Reenactors)
- > Watch the Nubian Quilters
- > See the CHS Special Dance Company
- > Paper quilt-making, face painting, storytellers and more
- > Sample delicious foods
- > Health screening and information

Visit the Country Store and special vendors

Admission
 free;
 donations
 appreciated

DURAND-HEDDEN
 House & Garden

523 Ridgewood Road
 Maplewood, NJ 07040
 (973) 763-7712
www.durand-hedden.org

CO-SPONSORED BY:

Juneteenth
 Celebration band,
 June 19, 1900
 Photo by Grace Murray
 Stephenson

Juneteenth
 Emancipation Day,
 June 19, 1900
 Austin Public Library

Large
 Print

69

SIGNING AVAILABLE IF REQUESTED
 BY MAY 30